OC WINE SOCIETY July 2018	90 Points, Gold

2016 FUMÉ BLANC – Sonoma County

CALIFORNIA GRAPEVINE September 2017	90 Points - Very Highly Recommended - Medium-light yellow color; assertive, fragrant, floral, moderately grassy, lemon/lime, guava and stone fruit aroma; medium body; crisp, herbal, grassy, citrusy flavors with tropical notes, a trace of minerality and bright acidity; lingering aftertaste.
CONNOISSEURS' GUIDE TO CALIFORNIA August 2017	Good Value - A near-perennial pick when it comes to Sauvignon Blancs that deliver fine value, the Dry Creek Vineyard Fumé Blanc is again an easy-to-like bottling that plays to the grape's fruitier side without forsaking a tell-tale touch of grass. Suggestions of minerals work its way into the mix and hang on well into the finish with lingering notes of green and ripe melons along for the ride.

2015 FUMÉ BLANC – Sonoma County

WINE ENTHUSIAST November 2016	90 Points - Top 100 Best Buy Wines for 2016 - The wine that started it all for the producer, first bottled in 1972, this was 100% stainless-steel fermented and drips in fruity citrus. Lemon pith continues the theme, accented by notes of pineapple salsa and crisp green apple, remaining vibrant and fresh throughout.
